

OKLAHOMA STOCK YARDS EXCHANGE BLDG.

If you have the idea that a modern stock yards and packing plant district is a sordid, unsightly place to be avoided unless compelled by business interests to visit it, you have a pleasant disappointment coming to you when you join the thousands who will attend the annual convention of the Panhandle and Southwestern Stockmen's Association which meets in Oklahoma City March 24-25.

The accompanying picture shows the building which houses the stock yards offices, the offices of the various commission firms who buy and sell live stock, telegraph offices, a post office, telegraph station, a big restaurant on second floor and in the basement the pressroom of the Daily Live Stock News, a publication devoted to the Oklahoma live stock industry. It is located on a beautiful lawn adjacent to both packing plants, the stock yards and the horse and mule market. The Oklahoma City Stock Yards district is one of the most ideal in its arrangement of any in the country. This fact is readily accounted for.

UNDERGOES OPERATION.

Mrs. Frank Henderson underwent a serious operation at Kansas City Tuesday. Late reports from her are to the effect that she is doing as well as could be expected. Mrs. J. H. McCord, formerly of Beaver, but who now resides in Kansas City, is with Mrs. Henderson.

SOME GOOD SHOWERS.

Several good showers have fallen in this locality the past week. Not enough water fell to wet the ground up to any great extent but the moisture will be a help to wheat and grass. A hail storm accompanied the rain Friday evening and for a time the hailstones came down at a lively rate almost covering the ground, but were small and did no damage. At different points throughout the county, the hail was much larger and the rain heavier.

The fact is, the four magazines we sell with the HERALD for 25c extra, represents the biggest reading value ever offered the public. Have you sent us your order? If not, send it or hone us today.

The whole district was planned and executed on ground which was farming area and selected because of its natural adaptability for this purpose.

Visitors to the convention will enjoy its broad streets and plaza, its beautiful lawns and symmetrical architecture.

During the entire time of the convention a live stock show will be in progress. This will attract the best breeders of the southwest and during the week of the convention hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of breeding stock will change hands.

On the afternoon of the second day of the convention an "Excursion" of all guests of the city will be run from the city to the yards, over the splendid double track electric street railway line that traverses the boulevard that connects the city proper with the stock yards district. It is expected that on this afternoon more than six thousand people will tour the district and inspect its many attractions.

An abundance of band music, free transportation and other items of hospitality will characterize this event.

WELL, HERE IT IS.

The following was recently published in the Downs (Kansas) Times and was taken from the files of that paper 25 years before: "This question and arithmetical problem was given the Downs M. E. Sunday School last Sunday by the pastor, Rev. J. C. Walker.

What was the average attendance of this Sunday School last year? If you multiply the number of Jacob's sons by the number of times the Israelites encompassed Jericho, and add to the product the number of measures of barley which Boaz gave Ruth; divide this by the number of Haman's sons; subtract the number of each kind of clean beasts that went into the ark; multiply by the number of men who went to seek Elijah after he was taken to Heaven; subtract Joseph's age at the time he stood before Pharaoh; divide by the number of stones David selected with which to kill Goliath; subtract the number of furlongs that Bethany was distant from Jerusalem; multiply by the number of anchors cast out at the time of Paul's shipwreck; subtract the number of people saved in the ark; divide by the number of tabernacles Peter proposed to build on the Mount of Transfiguration; add to this the number of mites given by the widow; and you will have the average attendance of the school for 1885. Who will solve this problem?"

The Herald offered to print the answer and here it is by Mrs. W. A. Leach of route 6. Mrs. Leach says the average attendance of the Sunday school was 94 for the year 1885. The answer is as follows:

Twelve (the number of Jacob's sons) times 13 (the number of times the Israelites encompassed Jericho) equals 156; plus 6 (the number of measures of barley Boaz gave Ruth) equals 162; divided by 10 (the number of Haman's sons) equals 16.2; minus 7 (the number of clean beasts Noah took into the ark,) equals 9.2; times 60 (the number of men who went to seek Elijah), equals 552; divided by 5 (the number of stones David selected with which to kill Goliath), equals 110.4; minus 15 (the number of furlongs Bethany is distant from Jerusalem,) equals 95.4; times 4 (the number of anchors cast out at the time of Paul's shipwreck,) equals 381.6; minus 8 (the number of people saved in the ark,) equals 373.6; divided by 3 (the number of tabernacles Peter proposed to build on the Mount of Transfiguration) equals 124.5; plus 2 (the number of mites given by the widow,) equals 126.5; the average attendance of the Downs Sunday School in 1885, Guyton Herald.

Beaver School Notes.

The total enrollment to date still remains 184 pupils.

The 6th and 7th grades will give an entertainment at the High School Auditorium Saturday night April 4th, 1914. No admission will be charged, but a free-will offering will be taken for the benefit of the play ground equipment fund.

The entertainment that was to be given by Prof. A. C. White was postponed last Friday night on account of the storm. It will be given at some future date.

The graded school held its preliminary field meet last week, as planned. The pupils did well in their try-outs and with training should be willing to win something next spring.

Harvel Padgett, Joe Meese and Russell Fry are making plans to accompany Prof. Swain to Alva April 11th, to enter the Northwestern field meet held at the Normal School.

If the weather permits four basket ball games will be played with Balke next Saturday afternoon. There will be games between both boys and girls first and second teams.

The Beaver graded school is to debate Blue Mound graded school and Beaver high school is to debate Balke high school for county championship in debate. The questions are not determined as yet. The debates will be held just before the Educational Fair in April.

Judge Meese, Clyde Green and Mr. Kuykendall acted as Judges for the field meet last Friday.

Prof. White gave a number of readings at Assembly time both at the high school and graded school, last Wednesday. His work was greatly appreciated by the pupils.

The 6th grade agriculture class is performing a number of experiments in seed testing. They are offering to test seed for the public and send the results of such tests to the parents furnishing the seed. Anyone with any kind of seed to be tested will do well to send a small package to M. C. Green and get a correct report as to its germinating record.

W. C. T. U. ITEMS.

The regular meeting, 3rd Friday in the month, will be at the M. E. church April 17th at 3:30 p. m. One meeting a month for this important work will do us all good.

The Institute is to be held at Gate, Saturday, April 4th. Rev. Shaw will deliver the lecture in the evening. The Male quartette will be in evidence also. A good time is planned.

The meeting at Couch was not held as the speaker and singers turned back after coming half the distance and dodged into their homes just in time to miss the rain. The ground was glad to get every drop. The date will be made soon again.

Prof. A. T. White and Claude T. Smith talked on Prohibition at Bethel school house Sunday evening and pleased the people who invited them back. Prof. White also gave readings from the new contest book.

Three more communities have asked for meetings soon and our citizens are proud to respond and help the cause of National Prohibition in speech and song. Other neighborhoods write or phone Mrs. Long, county corresponding secretary, or Mrs. Fellow, president, and arrange dates for meetings. Supt. Fellow started Wednesday eastward to visit schools and attend a joint County Teachers' Association at Laverne, Friday and Saturday, where he expects to meet the State Supt. H. H. Wilson.

Prof. A. T. White has received two new readings, each to occupy one evening, which he will give to the public, where the subject of Peace is desired to be discussed, and who does not want peace?

Dr. and Mrs. Miller called on Prof. Fellows family Tuesday evening and enjoyed looking over the curios. A Kenyon Take Down House catalog was also shown which interested them much.

Notice is hereby given that the Dog Tax for 1914 is due and must be paid full at the Bank of Beaver City and pay your tax and secure a tag for your dog. All dogs not tagged will be killed. FRANK SHOCKLEY City Marshal
